

I heard from a colleague that the FCC would like to remove KLOVE radio station from broadcasting. I have enjoyed the music, editorials, news, and wholesome programming found on this radio station. If there is something specific I need to do to ensure this station's continued broadcasting on the radio, please let me know.